Kirk Martin on behalf of the Orleans County Sheriff's Department was present for signing of the yearly Contract for the Agreement for General Law Enforcement Services. The Contract was reviewed and a motion was made and seconded to approve as written & signed.

Jennifer Harlow Jacobs introduced herself, as she is running for Orleans County Sheriff. She works as a Special Investigation Detective with the Newport Police Department, where she investigates reports of sexual Abuse involving children and Adults, severe Child Abuse, elder abuse, and domestic assault cases. She also is involved with the Vermont Internet Crimes against Children task forces, and investigates crimes that occur over the internet involving children. She has over 22 years' experience in law enforcement, with 19 years being full-time certified law enforcement officer. She also is a police academy and Domestic Violence Instructor (RAD). She is active in the area schools and also with Umbrella, where she teaches about healthy relationship and technology Safety. As Sheriff, she would eventually like to make the sheriff department 24 hour services and a more of a go to department that citizens can turn to. Regarding the Opioid Crisis she feels that more could be done, as she would like to lead that change. She is very active in many things in the community.
